- 6. Proposed Terms of Reference for Committee on International Communism
  (IAC-D-99/2, 9 January 1956)
- a. Mr. Kuhrtz stated that the FBI did not feel it would have a great deal to contribute to the work of the committee, and that the projected functions of the committee were primarily of interest to State, the Services, and CIA. The Bureau therefore planned not to designate a member to serve on this committee. Mr. Amory said that he thought the FBI would be interested in and would be able to contribute to the work of the committee, inasmuch as international communism embraced the Communist party in the US as well as foreign Communist activities. He further stated that it was generally preferable to have each IAC member represented on committees when the work of the committees is of interest to all the members. Mr. Armstrong said he hoped the FBI would reconsider its decision.
- b. In view of the above discussion, the IAC deferred action on the proposed terms of reference to permit the FBI to reconsider its position with respect to membership on the committee.
- 7. Proposed Terms of Reference for Resistance Intelligence
  Committee
  (IAC-D-75/6, 11 January 1956)
